

HIGH DESERT MUSEUM

WILDLIFE and LIVING HISTORY

YES Teen Science Institute Registration Form

The YES Teen Science Institute at the High Desert Museum is an opportunity for teens to gain a deeper understanding of science while discovering the behind the scenes details of the Bats: Masters of the Night exhibit. Teens will be introduced to research with field biologists, perform hands – on experiments, and design their own final project. Teens can receive School to Career elective credit through Bend La Pine High School. The High Desert Museum Teen Volunteer Program is a high quality, service oriented program designed for teens with a desire to share the message of the High Desert Museum through educational activities and service for guests of the Museum.

The Fee is $650 per student for a six week program

Monday – Wednesday June 22 – July 31, 2009 9:00-3:00
