

Policy Updated 2/11/19

High Desert Museum Film/Video/Photos

As a regular visitor to the Museum, you're welcome to take videos and still photography for personal, noncommercial use, provided all of the following:

1. Videos and still photography are allowed only in the public areas of the Museum
2. Imagery cannot be sold
3. Imagery cannot be given to a third-party for use, whether it's a commercial or noncommercial entity
4. Tripods or monopods aren't allowed in any indoor spaces and aren't allowed to block visitor traffic outdoors
5. Disrupting visitor traffic and/or experiences in order to capture imagery is not permitted. Be respectful of other visitors' and staff privacy, too. If asked to refrain from images that might include them, do so
6. Disrupting Museum volunteers, staff or wildlife in order to capture imagery is not permitted
7. Imagery must be taken during regular Museum hours
8. No special considerations will be given (e.g. golf carts, security, etc.)
9. The party must immediately comply with any instruction given by Museum staff and/or volunteers around imagery collection or any aspect of this policy

Inquiries about this policy should be directed to the Director of Communications at info@highdesertmuseum.org.
